The 18th International Conference on Ancient Bronzes took place at the University of Zurich and the Paul Scherrer Institute in Villigen from the 3rd to the 7th September 2013. It was organized by the Archaeological Institute, the Department of Ancient History, the Paul Scherrer Institute and the Swiss National Museum. The conference proceedings presented here include 51 papers on the current research regarding bronze artefacts in English, German, French and Italian.